

Nathan I. North
Associate

nin@iplawgroup.com

Nathan concentrates his practice on intellectual property infringement litigation and patent prosecution. He has experience in a wide range of technologies and industries including AI, aerodynamics, 3-D printing, sporting goods, and manufacturing. Nathan's background provides further depth to our appellate practice and brings the technical skills our clients need for drafting patent applications.

Prior to joining Patterson, Nathan served as a Law Clerk for the Honorable Raymond Chen of the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit in Washington, D.C. He is a 2017 graduate of Emory University School of Law, where he served as the Editor and Chief of the Emory Law Journal.

Education

J.D., Emory University School of Law, Order of the Coif.

B.S., Mechanical Engineering, The University of Tennessee, magna cum laude

Bar Admissions

Tennessee

Georgia

D.C.

Registered Patent Attorney (USPTO)

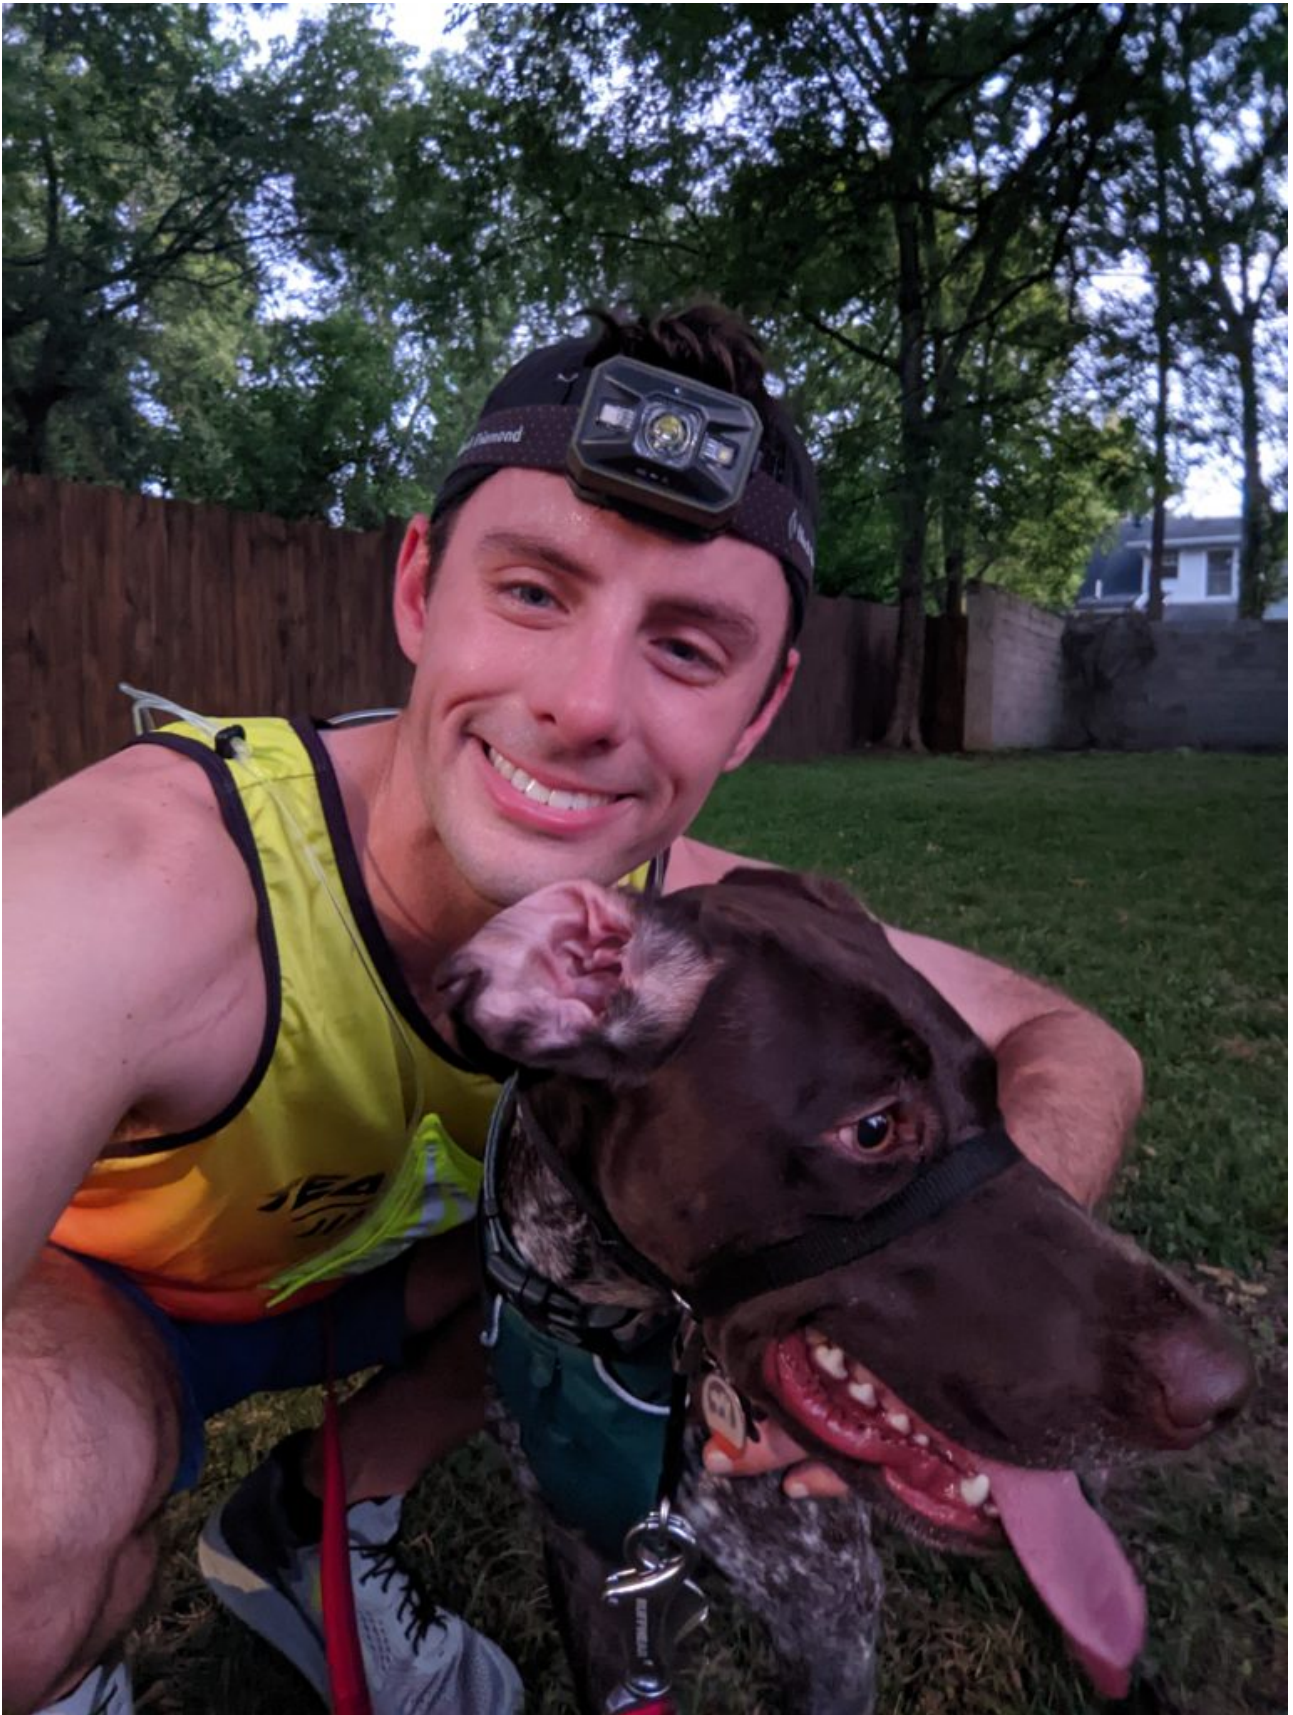

Professional Memberships

- Nashville Bar Association
- Tennessee Bar Association
- Federal Circuit Bar Association
- Nashville Entertainment and IP Law American Inn of Court

Court Admissions

- Eastern District of Tennessee
- Northern District of Georgia
- Middle District of Georgia
- Eastern District of Texas
- Middle District of Tennessee
- U.S. Court of Appeals, Federal Circuit

Outside the Office

Outside of the office, Nathan enjoys staying active through triathlon, hiking, golf, and going for runs with his dog.